

BOWLING GREEN HUMAN RELATIONS COMMISSION
Honor Roll Award
Nomination Form

The Bowling Green Human Relations Commission is seeking nominations to recognize local organizations, businesses, or individuals for significant efforts to further the betterment of human relations in the community and to promote respect for diversity through educational efforts and advocacy. This award will be given to deserving individuals or groups as determined by the Human Relations Commission. The Commission invites people in the community to nominate worthy individuals or groups for this recognition.

Name of the individual or group nominated:

Address, phone, and e-mail of individual or group:

Name of the nominator and the relationship/affiliation with the individual or the group.

Signature of nominator: _____ Date: _____

INSTRUCTIONS

On a separate sheet, state why the individual or group should be recognized. Provide specific examples of efforts, advocacy, events, or programs by the individual or group which enhance human relations in the community, work to secure equality and understanding, and promote respect for diversity.

Please submit this form and the rationale to the Human Relations Commission via the Mayor's office.