

Bowling Green Parks and Recreation Hosts

Youth Sports Night Featuring Guest Speaker Bob Bigelow

Wednesday, October 12th

Location: The Bowling Green
Community Center
1245 W. Newton Road,
Bowling Green, OH

- Free Admission
- Refreshments Provided!
- Door Prizes!
- Cash donations accepted.

Adults only are invited to this event.
Parents, volunteer coaches, youth league administrators, officials, P.E. teachers, educators and any youth sport professionals or enthusiasts are welcome to attend.

To attend the clinic or speaking event, please send an RSVP email to eric.fletcher@bgohio.org with your name and phone number.

Basketball Coach Clinic 5:30-7PM (interactive course)
Speaking Event 7-9PM (includes Q& A and book signing)

Young Athletes Need More Than What They're Getting

Bob is dedicated to promoting a better approach to youth sports programs.

Bob Bigelow

- Former College Basketball Player, NBA Player and First Round Draft Pick
- Co-Author of Just Let the Kids Play and (NEW) e-book, Youth Sports: Still Failing Our Kids - How to Really Fix It.

Bob will address the issues in youth sports today:

- Meeting the needs of ALL children in youth sports
- Recognizing the cost of elite travel teams
- Avoiding practices that discourage late-blooming athletes
- Adults not competing with one another through our children
- Ensuring coaches and administrators are qualified and trained to work effectively with kids
- And addressing other critical needs in youth sports

Sponsored by:

Carol Solether-Managing Partner Modern Woodmen of America

